TPCoE training for police officers of the Polish contingent of the European Union Rule of Law Mission in Kosovo (EULEX)

Szkolenie CPT dla funkcjonariuszy policji Polskiego Kontyngentu Misji Unii Europejskiej w zakresie praworządności w Kosowie (EULEX)

On 16 January, a TPCoE expert conducted a training course on information security in the context of threats posed by state and non-state actors for police officers serving with the European Union Rule of Law Mission in Kosovo (EULEX).

The issues discussed were presented against the background of the current geopolitical situation and concerned various aspects of the activities of foreign services vis-à-vis NATO states, including the disinformation and propaganda activities of the Russian media. The subject of the meeting was also the threats to information security that may result from careless activity both in the online space and during contacts made during domestic and foreign travel.

The event was another such educational initiative for the benefit of the Police as part of the TPCoE's efforts to foster countering information threats in the terrorist context.

Previous Page
Next Page