Consultation meeting with the Croatian partner service SOA - Split

Expert consultations of SOA
and ABW

On 9-10 July 2019 delegation of the Terrorist Prevention Centre of Excellence took part in the next expert consultations in Croatia (Split) as part of a project co-financed from European funds (PO WER).

The talks focused on key issues related to the Center's activity at the international and national level as well as related to strategic plans for the future, which include: launching a security campaign, establishment of an e-learning tool and hosting international terrorism prevention conference on the occasion of the second anniversary of the Centre in 2020.

The TPCoE presented also to SOA the recommendations on terrorism prevention in public utility buildings of the state administration.

The Croatian side presented the results of actions taken within the PO WER project at the national level in Croatia.
