Terrorism Prevention Centre of Excellence

CPT ABW is a partner of a pan-European project against hybrid threats

CPT ABW

Since 1 May 2020 the Centre is a consortium member in the EU-HYBNET project (Empowering a Pan-European Network to Counter Hybrid Threats)

The EU-Hybnet project (Empowering a Pan-European Network to Counter Hybrid Threats) is based on cooperation of a broad range of organizations and experts from the public sector, academia and NGOs to work out new tools and boost resilience of European societies towards hybrid threats. The project consortium consists of 25 organizations from 16 European countries.

Laurea University is the project coordinator, and The European Centre of Excellence for Countering Hybrid Threats (Hybrid CoE) is the main content provider. Other partners in the project include:

- Laurea University of applied Sciences
- Polish Internal Security Agency
- University of Tromso (UiT)
- Netherlands Ministry of Defense
- Rise research institutes of Sweden
- KEMEA
- L3CE
- Universidad Rey Juan Carlo (URJC)
- French Ministry of Ecological and Solidarity Transitition
- European organization for security (EOS)
- TNO
- Polish Platform for Homeland security (PPHS)
- SATWAYS
- City of Espoo
- Universita Cattolica del Sacro Cuore
- National Intelligence Academy M. Viteazul
- Hybrid CoE
- Netherlands Ministry of Defense
- Local Policoe of the city of Valence
- Norvegian Directorate for civil protection
- Maldita
- German Central Offica for Information Technology in the Security Sector
- Competence Center COMTESSA
- Joint Research Centre European Commission (JRC)

Current information on the project is available on twitter.

And on the project website: https://euhybnet.eu/

The TP CoE invites other institutions dealing with hybrid threats to cooperate within the project.

For more information, please contact us by e-mail.