Joint Special Meeting of the Anti-Terrorism Committee and the Sanctions Committee on ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaeda entitled: "Terrorist Financing Threats and Trends and Implementation of Security Council Resolution 2462 (2019)".

On Thursday, 18 November 2021, acting pursuant to Security Council resolution 2462 (2019), the Counter-Terrorism Committee and the Sanctions Committee on ISIL (Da'esh) and al-Qaida will hold a joint special meeting to discuss threats and trends related to terrorist financing, as well as the implementation of resolution 2462 (2019).

The joint special meeting, to be held pursuant to paragraph 36 of resolution 2462 (2019), will also highlight good practices and persistent challenges in efforts to counter terrorist financing; recognize the role of the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) in setting global standards to prevent and combat terrorist financing; and highlight coordination mechanisms related to technical assistance provided by the United Nations to support countries' efforts in this area.

The meeting will be conducted in the six official languages of the United Nations.

Source: https://www.un.org/securitycouncil/ctc/news/joint-special-meeting-counter-terrorism-committee-and-126719892253-isil-da%E2%80%99esh-and-al-qaida

Previous Page
Next Page